

To whom it may concern;

I wish to appeal to your common sense. Rarely do people govern there own self discipline very effectively,for exemple, a cell phone ringing at a funeral, at church during services, or trying to check in at the ticket counter.Please leave this ban in effect of cell phones on flights. There is enough noise in our daily lives now.